THURSDAY, JULY 6, 1876.

Greenbacks at the New York Gold Exchange yesterday closed at $94.

It has been decided by the Finance Committee and the Comptroller to place the new popular loan on the market at once. It will be offered in the shape of $1,000,000 of time revenue warrants, or denominations not less than $500, payable in one year, and drawing 8 per cent interest.

An erroneous impression seems to prevail to some extent among tax-payers—viz.: that the decision of the Supreme Court on "Bill 300" affects also the taxes of 1875. This is a mistake. The tax of 1875 was levied under the general law, and not under "Bill 300," and there is no question as to the legality of the levy. The prompt payment of the tax will save trouble to all concerned.

PRINCIPAL ought to be a happy man, and to thank fortune for the liberality with which the average legislator votes away the public money. He could not be United States Senator from Louisiana, but he could get $20,000 worth of consolation, that being the sum which the Senate decided was about the right thing to do for a man who it had decided was never lawfully elected.

Arrangements are practically completed for the grand HAYES and WHEELER ratification meeting to be held next Saturday evening. Among the speakers announced are Col. BOY INGERSOLL, Gov. CULLOM, and Senators LOGAN and OGLESBY. It will be the first great demonstration in the Northwest, and if the weather permits, it will be a fitting inauguration of the campaign.

Ex-Secretary Bristow has been summoned as a witness before the House Judiciary Committee, the expectation being that he will disclose what has passed between himself and the President concerning the whisky-fraud prosecutions. In this the Democrats will probably be disappointed, as it is believed Mr. Bristow will refuse to reveal Cabinet secrets, basing his refusal on the ground that these are communications of the highest privilege, and as such cannot be extorted by the Committee—a position that is undoubtedly correct.

The Centennial Fourth was exceptionally free from the accidents and casualties which usually form a part of the day's celebration, but what it lacked in mishaps resulting from ordinary carelessness and folly was furnished in fearful proportions by the havoc created by the elements. By the sudden rise of water in Catfish Creek the little Town of Rockdale, near Dubuque, was almost literally swept out of existence, and thirty-nine persons perished in the terrible flood. A severe tornado visitation fell to the lot of the people in other parts of Iowa the same night, killing and wounding several persons, and destroying a large amount of property.

The fifth of the twelve appropriations bills to be passed by Congress, the Post-Office bill, was passed by the House yesterday. Messrs. HOLMAN and RANDALL, who had been among the most obstinate and persistent opponents of any and all concession, evidently concluded that the interests of the party were not likely to be advanced by further attempts to cripple the postal service, for they were found wanting in their firm devotion to the principles of "retrenchment and reform" which is expected of Bourbon leaders. They joined the Republicans and the more reasonable and prudent of the majority in passing the bill, which appropriates $3,000,000 less than last year.

Mr. HENDRICKS, it is said, will devote all his energies to the work of securing the repeal of the Resumption act. This, it is alleged, is the necessary preliminary to the acceptance of the St. Louis nomination. There seems to be considerable doubt whether even the Confederate House has the requisite strength wherewith to do its share in the work of repeal and in the present condition of legislation the chances are largely against the soft-money men having the opportunity to get a square vote on their pet measure. But then Mr. HENRY HARRIS needs to be in no hurry about accepting the empty honor thrust upon him by the St. Louis gathering. He will feel less humiliation in November next, when the "Reform" ticket is buried out of sight, if he shall then know that the popular voice has a general rather than a personal application.

The Chicago produce markets were generally less active and easier yesterday, except in corn. Mow's closed 12½ per cent lower, at $19.35¢/19.40 for July, and $19.50 for August. Laird closed 12½ per cent lower, at $11.27¢ cash, and $11.87¢/11.40 for August. Meats were steady at 80 for boxed shoulders, 10½ for do shank ribs, and 10½ for do short cleaves.

Lake freights were dull, at 20 for corn to Buffalo. Rail freights were unchanged. Highwines were unchanged, at $1.10¢ per gallon. Flour was in moderate demand.

Wheat closed ½ lower, at $1.03¢ for July and $1.05¢ for August. Corn closed 1½ higher, at 47½ for July and 48½ for August. Oats closed a shade firmer, at 80¢ cash and 29¢ for August. Rye was dull at 67¢. Barley was unchanged at 57¢ cash, and nominally 75¢/80¢ for September. Hogs were in short supply, and, under a good demand, prices advanced 20¢/25¢ per 100 lbs., selling at $6.25 to $6.65 for pigs to extra. Cattle were active, at 20¢/25¢ advance, with sales at $2.95¢/5.20. There were no receipts of cattle. Last Saturday evening there was in store in this city 1,608,058 lbs wheat, 858,879 lbs corn, 338,027 lbs oats, 60,718 lbs rye, and 328,703 lbs barley. One hundred dollars in gold would buy $112.25 in greenbacks at the close.

Accounts are received by way of Stillwater, Mont., of a terrible defeat suffered by the troops under the command of Gen. CUSTER. On the 25th of June an attack was made by Gen. CUSTER with five companies of cavalry upon a Sioux village of about 4,000 warriors, and the attacking party was absolutely annihilated. Gen. CUSTER, and his two brothers, his nephew, and his brother-in-law were killed. Not a man belonging to the five companies escaped, the killed numbering three hundred and fifteen. Major RENO's detachment of seven companies narrowly escaped the same fate, as the Indians surrounded them in the hills for an entire day, and were only driven off by the timely arrival of GRAMMER'S command. The Indians had exposed TILDEN, and had him down. TILDEN valiantly turned upon his old friend and persecuted him. He was confined for a short time, and made good his escape. TILDEN never lifted his finger to prevent it.

The Democrats have nominated this man as a reformer! They have presented the country with a platform which is a long and loud bawl for "reform," but in no part of it, from the first to the last, is there any bawling for reform of ballot-box stuffing and corruption. It is time that this specious Confederacy howl for reform was shown up in its true light, and that SAMUEL J. TILDEN, apostle of GRAMMER, command, and brother-in-law be held responsible for TILDEN in corruption. The proofs of this are clear as day. The charges have never been disputed. And yet SAMUEL J. TILDEN is the "Reform" candidate of the Democratic-Confederate party for the Presidency!

The collective PAUL PAY, so prominently and persistently pursued by the Confederate majority in the National House of Representatives, has at last intruded where he is likely to make much trouble for the PAUL PAY family at large. This inquisitive individual recently sent an inquiry to the Interior Department (at the same time having no desire to intrude), the purpose being to learn what, if any, irregularities have been detected in that department of late years, in order to have the proper data to assist him in the great work of "reform" upon which he has entered. The inquiry has brought out facts and figures which tell very badly for anti-Rebellion Democratic members of the Interior Department. The sympathy of that Cabinet officers with the ultimate end and aim of the secession element is amply shown by the tax-levies of 1873 and 1874 which the resistance ought to include two-thirds of the tax-levy. Indeed, it ought to include the whole tax-levy; that is to say, every tax-payer ought to add his strength and influence to the army of tax-fighters who battle against an extortionate City Government with the whole tax-levy. This is the result which PAUL PAY has brought about in last year's tax-levy.

It must be borne in mind that the tax-levies of 1873 and 1874 have not been set aside by the Courts, not because they were unjust or excessive, or unfair, or imposed for illegal purposes, but because the City Government, supposing it had an option as to which of the two laws it would proceed under, with proverbial stupidity selected the wrong one. The coolest part of this infamous iniquity appeal is the suggestion that it is approved by Messrs. C. HENRY W. KING, M. SHAND FIELD, C. P. KELLOGG, GEORGE L. DUNLAP, WILLARD WOODARD, and ANSER TAYLOR, either of whom, it is claimed, is willing to become a candidate for Mayor on this platform. This is the result which PAUL PAY has brought about in last year's tax-levy.

PAUL PAY is a grosser fib than the tax-levy which the City Government has imposed on the 5th by a demand for the abolition of all City Government. The second proposition is of course a natural consequence of the first, and the two are consistent and inseparable. In support of the first proposition, that paper says:

"The extortionate levy of over $5,000,000 for 1873 and 1874, which the City Government has imposed on the 5th by a demand for the abolition of all City Government. In these words to-day, though they gave HOFFMAN 17,448 majority.

TILDEN never met these charges, never denied them, never refuted them. They stand against him to-day as they stood when Mr. GREELEY made them. They stick to him like the poisoned shirt of Nansen. His own private and strictly confidential letter, coupled with the results of the Congressional investigation, accuse him of crimes sufficient to send some men to the Penitentiary. He helped to steal the State and elect HOFFMAN in 1868 by gross fraud. He was elected himself in 1874 by slippery work, secret crows, late midnight plottings, cheating, and swindling. It is a public matter that money was freely spent in St. Louis to buy his nomination for President, and now his friends are in the mountains of Herzegovina and Dalmatia.

but it is not likely, purchase subject to this law and subject to future lawsuits; but the probability is that no part of that property can ever be sold without the payment of this tax. Such a notice as this placed upon the public records of titles will accomplish the end sought for more certainly and with much less expense than the mere publication of the names of the non-tax-payers.

If men without any pretense that they were unjustly taxed, or taxed for an unlawful purpose, or on property not subject to taxation, refuse to pay their taxes, then they cannot object to have it enforced on the recorded titles of their property that there is due and unpaid thereon the proportionate share of the tax for the City Government for the years 1873 and 1874.

THE CITY.

GENERAL NEWS.

The Hon. J. V. Lehmann, M. C., left for Washington last evening.

On the Fourth the West Side Street Railway Company carried 75,000 passengers, the largest number it has ever yet handled in one day.

The Rev. J. W. Hanson, editor of the New Evangel, is one of the Centennial Doctors of Ovinty. Buchtel College, Akron, O., did the honor.

The temperature yesterday, as observed by Manasse, optician, 88 Madison street, TRIBUNE Building, was at 8 a. m., 75 degrees; 10 a. m., 77; 12 m., 80; 3 p. m., 85; 8 p. m., 81. Barometer, 8 a. m., 28.75; 8 p. m., 28.95.

Cornelius Dietrich yesterday held an inquest on the boy William Punction who was shot on the Fourth by George Nelson at No. 123 Lake street. The boy was held for trial on the 25th, charged with a misdemeanor. Division street named Anderson for selling him cartridges.

The residents of the South Side who are fond of moonlight trips on the lake, can enjoy the opportunity now, as a neat sail-boat has been put into the water, and is available for hire during the summer at the dock foot of Douglas avenue, opposite the railroad depot.

At 8 o'clock yesterday morning the body of a boy about 8 years of age was found floating in the river at Ogden street, at the foot of Madison street.
